

2023 ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE MARKETING EDUCATORS (ACME) CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

To be included in the 2023 ACME Conference Proceedings, you must meet the following requirements:

Please submit the final revised form of either your full paper or a one or two page extended abstract in the Word format to the EasyChair online submission system (under your current EasyChair submission), no later than Dec. 15, 2022.

EasyChair online submission portal link: <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=acme2022>

If your paper has been accepted to the conference, please revise the paper/ extended abstract as suggested by the reviewers and upload it to EasyChair before Dec. 15, 2022. If you had already submitted the proceedings document to easy chair, but would like to update it as per the reviewer feedback, please log on to EasyChair submission link, click on the submission # (e.g., Submission 178) included in the navigation bar at the top of the screen. Once you access your submission, click on the Add/Update files link at the top right hand corner and upload the new file for the proceedings.

At least one author must register for the conference by Feb 13, 2023, and attend the ACME Conference. For more information about conference registration, we will be sending out the details once our parent organization FBD open the registration online.

If you have any questions regarding the Proceedings, please contact ACME proceeding editor, Dr. Weixing Ford, at weixing.ford@tamusa.edu

Why Publish Your Work in the ACME Proceedings?

Why should you publish your full paper or extended abstract in the ACME Proceedings? The ACME Proceedings is published online and is open access. It is also indexed by Google Scholar. That means any scholar around the world can access your full paper or extended abstract in the ACME Proceedings. Your work can easily be seen and cited by other scholars if it is in the Proceedings. Further, some universities take into account the ACME Proceedings for tenure and promotion decisions.

GUIDELINES TO AUTHORS OF ACCEPTED PAPERS

The 2023 ACME Conference Proceedings will be published in a digital format. Full papers or extended abstracts must be submitted to EasyChair online submission system as a Word document, no later than Dec. 15, 2022. Any paper not received by the deadline may not be included in the Proceedings.

Please follow the guidelines exactly so that the final publication will be consistent and professional in appearance. As we have a tight production schedule, paper submissions well before the deadline would be greatly appreciated.

While we welcome both full papers as well as extended abstracts for publication in the ACME Conference Proceedings, authors of full papers are free to choose to submit only an extended abstract in lieu of an originally submitted full paper for publication within the Proceedings. Panelists can submit their position papers for the Proceedings as extended abstracts.

Proceedings production volunteers reserve the right to make any format changes deemed necessary to any submission. Editorial changes, such as correcting grammar and spelling, will not be made. Please use spell check and proofread your final paper carefully before it is submitted.

REQUIREMENTS FOR FULL PAPERS AND ABSTRACTS

Papers should be submitted in a Microsoft Word format (.doc and .docx formats) to EasyChair online submission system (under your current submission). Successful receipt of your paper by the system will be acknowledged by an email.

At least one author for each paper must register for the Association of Collegiate Marketing Educators (ACME) Conference. Please register by Feb 13, 2023.

You may view sample Proceedings papers here (http://acme-fbd.org/?page\_id=31)

Do not use page numbers, footnotes, endnotes, the Word markup or auto-format features, or any extraneous formatting. Do not use any document-level commands that would interfere with the combination of your paper with other papers in a common file.

The paper must start with the full title, centered, in capitals, bold print, underlined, and in 16-point Times New Roman font. Following a space, each author and university affiliation must be shown in Times New Roman 12-point bold font, and one author per line. No titles (Dr., Mr., Mrs., etc.) are to be used, nor should rank be indicated. One space must follow the last author's name. Then, draw a line across the page. Please, do not use type-styles other than the ones specified.

After the line that appears below the last author's name, double space and type the heading ABSTRACT, centered in Times New Roman 12-point bold, and ALL CAPS. All full papers must have an abstract of no more than 100 words in Times New Roman 12 point. The abstract paragraph is not indented and should be right and left justified. Double space and then draw another line.

After the line that appears below the abstract, double space and type the heading INTRODUCTION, centered in Times New Roman 12 point bold, and ALL CAPS. All major headings must follow this format. Secondary headings must be in bold print left justified, first letter capitalized then lower case, with a space above and below each heading.

Use 12-point proportional font Times New Roman, for the body of the paper and all headings. Single space the text. Double space between paragraphs and indent the first line five spaces using the tab key. Use full justification for the text (right and left justified). Use 1" margins all around. Do not put the paper in columns.

When citing references within the text, please use (parentheses), e.g., (Johnston 2004).

Tables, figures, and charts should be produced using Word, if possible. Use the Word table function format, or use tab settings and NOT spaces, for table set-up. Place all tables, graphs, and figures in the body of the text where you want them to appear (not at the end).

The final heading is REFERENCES. A complete list of references is required at the end of the paper. "References available upon request" or similar phrases are not acceptable. Use Journal of Marketing referencing style throughout the paper, including the reference section. Please consult any ACME 2015 paper for a sample acceptable reference. Use Times New Roman 12-point type. Use (parentheses) to enclose the year and month. Make sure that you have all your references cited and included in your list of references. Only references cited in the body of the paper should appear.

FULL PAPER submissions must be limited to 20 single-spaced pages, including references.

Authors choosing the extended abstract option should follow the same format guidelines as a full paper, except for headings. The words EXTENDED ABSTRACT should be used in place of ABSTRACT and no other headings are required. Extended abstracts are limited to two full pages including references.

Spell check before sending your paper and correct all grammatical errors. Also, edit the paper to address the comments and suggestions of the reviewers.

Submissions not following the above instructions will be returned to the author for corrections. Please follow the instructions in these guidelines so that we will have an attractive and readable Proceedings publication, and a smooth process in producing it.
